COLLECTION 2024

Don't stop me talking 'bout LOVE...

Remembering every thing & every time would drive the human body crazy

That's why timing exist Everything consists of timing Making friction Creating more time & energy

That's why everything has to move constantly

The dark matter is in the shadows chasing light driving it like crazy, keeping it safe.

There are no space between things. Timing is between.

It's small & big universes everywhere with time between.

When the heart rules the mind...

Don't stop me talking 'bout Love...

'Our system is in crisis but our experience tell us that there is a solution for our civilization'
